DETAILED ACTION

The inclusion of the additional species antibiotic resistance for selectable marker and CB 1954 for prodrug is in error as correctly alluded to by applicants at page 2, paragraph 2 of the instant REMARKS (7/22/04). As stated by applicants the confusion arose over election of one species from each of categories (a) through (e), or just a single species from one of the categories had to be chosen. The confusion caused by the restriction/election of a single species is regretted.

For clarification, since categories (a)-(e) are distinct species, applicant is therefore required to elect a single species from each of categories (a) -(e). The restriction/election of species of 9/8/03 is reiterated below:

Election of species

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention.

The species are as follows:

a) Selectable marker (antibiotic resistance or otherwise) as recited in claim 5.

b) Enzyme capable of converting a prodrug to its active drug form.

c) Prodrug (e.g., CB1954, SN 23862, 2-[N,N-bis(2-iodoethyl)amino]-3,5-dinitrobenzamide, 5-fluorocytosine, acyclovir, ganciclovir and 6-methyl-9-(2-deoxy-B-D-erythro-pentofuranosyl) purine in claim 7.

Art Unit: 1639

d) Single enzyme from which variants are derived, recited in claim 9.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species [from each of the above a)-d) i.e., one species for a, one for b and so forth] to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP 809.02(a).
